

This proposed regulation appears to me to be overkill! I am already being sent many "authorization to fax" from the people I normally do business with and the associations I belong to and it is more trouble to me than throwing away the unwanted faxes. None of us want spam but there must be some way that is not as intrusive on normal business as the proposed regulation is! Thank You Alan McElwain